Stephen learned to deal with the challenges of being ADHD and dyslexic. His high school counselor told him he didn't have the IQ to go to college, but Stephen had the “I will”. He is now an international recognized speaker on health, proactive preventive education, juvenile justice, dropout prevention, school safety, and leadership building for schools and communities. He is widely known as The Power of One speaker. Dr. Skora suffered a cardiac arrest while speaking at a conference in Washington DC. He realized that it takes more than one person to save a life. His message changed from The Power of One to The Power of Many.
