Assurances from www.EdJobsND.com:

- ✓ Offer FREE services to all potential applicants and provide a web-based job vacancy service as described:
 - Space to list all of your openings – both teaching and non-teaching (i.e. administrative, maintenance, etc.);
 - Control over the size and wording of the listing;
 - Control over how long each position will remain posted;
 - Ability to archive common listings so you can quickly and easily revise them from year to year, just making the adjustment for date, location, etc.
 - Search capabilities for participating members to view the entire pool of candidates and communicate with those who fit the desired profile based on your own keywords;
 - Electronic résumés to provide you with a quick, easy and efficient way to assess qualifications of potential candidates;
 - Automatic notification upon submitting a job posting of registered candidates who meet the criteria for your position.
- ✓ Ensure confidentiality of information entered on the “Member Only” side of the service.
- ✓ Regularly communicate and promote the site’s use by post-secondary agencies, potential applicants and schools throughout the US, including periodic advertising to placement offices in major universities, employment security offices, libraries, school district offices and other job placement services.
- ✓ Offer a “help” contact phone number for members’ questions.

Assurances from Members enrolled in www.EdJobsND.com:

- ✓ Restrict site access and password to a select few employees of the authorized member;
- ✓ Authorized users agree not to release the password and only to list positions that would be legally considered employment by the participant member;
- ✓ Assist in advertising the site by posting information and using other forms of local publication to promote the site and its purpose;
- ✓ Follow the Acceptable Use Guidelines detailed below:

Acceptable Use Guidelines:

- ✓ The user is responsible for accuracy, content and appropriateness of all information posted under the authorized password of the member;
- ✓ Any use of the system must be compliance with all state and federal laws and conform to the high standards of professional conduct;
- ✓ The vacancy service is a fee-based service of NDCEL, and NDCEL reserves the right to revoke the access, without a refund, of any authorized user who violates these guidelines.
