9-9:40 Breakout Session I
Rembrandt “Personalized Learning” Jeff Thake

Listen as you learn how one district journeyed to a 1:1 and personalized learning. Learn how to engage the school and community in an effort to transform public education.

Picasso “Ramp up to Readiness” Jennifer Fremstad

Ramp up to Readiness is an advisory curriculum that has allowed West Fargo HS to leverage the power of student advisory to meet the social/emotional needs of students as well as requirements of ESSA. Cross walk the curriculum with the essential skills identified in the Choice Reader Matrix of the ESSA plan

Da Vinci “Principal/Teacher Evaluation” Russ Ziegler

In April 2107, Dr. Jim Stenehjem did a survey of how the new evaluation systems are going. In this session we will review the results of the survey and will discuss what the future might hold for the current Principal/Teacher Evaluation systems in terms of ESSA.

10-10:50 Rembrandt “Model Code of Ethics” Rebecca Pitkin

This interactive session will discuss the Model Code of Educator Ethics, recently adopted by the ESPB. Information will be provided regarding the role of teacher preparation programs, local districts and ESPB. Participants will view recent national cases within the context of the Model Code and reflect on ways they can apply the principles within their own setting and role to become a more effective educators. Issued on social media will be address as well as other teacher/student boundaries.

11-11:50 Breakout Session II

Rembrandt “Well Rounded Education, the Arts and Funding Opportunities” Rebecca Engelman

In 2015, ESSA was passed providing state and district leaders with increased flexibility to best meet the needs of all students. Look beyond the traditional methods of approaching student achievement and find innovative solutions for ensuring all students have the experience of receiving a well-rounded education.

Da_Vinci “Remediation: Past, Present and Future”
Russ Ziegler

The history of remediation and how it has evolved over the years will be discussed. The need of remediation, the remediation rates across the country and some possible effects of remediation on students will also be covered.

Renior/Russel “The Happiness Advantage”
Ned Clooten

If we can help students find happiness first, research shows we can greatly impact their futures. Habits that we can foster with our students have been proven to lead to a happy outlook on life.

VanGogh/Remington “Suspension, Expulsion & Truancy Data” Valerie Fischer

Focus on data for the annual suspension, expulsion and truancy data. An open conversation on what to report and find commonalities to understand the activity of our students and schools.

Wyeth/Rockwell “Modified Block Scheduling for Grades 7-12” Kent Packer

Some classes don’t seem to fit in the traditional school day structure. Kindred has been using a modified schedule where 3 days a week are traditional, 2 days per week are block schedules. Find out how this works and the advantages and disadvantages.

New York/New York “Making the Most of Instructional Rounds” Lisha Christopherson

Instructional Rounds offers teachers, specialists and other educational professionals within a building to observe each other and compare their instructional practices with those they observe. Build communities at different grade levels and different areas throughout the school.
